NEA Board names Deputy Administrator San Diego as OIC

The Board Administrators of the National Electrification Administration (NEA) has assigned Deputy Administrator Sonia San Diego as Officer-in-Charge (OIC) of the agency, pending the appointment of a new Administrator.

The NEA Board of Administrators, in Special Board Resolution No. 2021-02, approved the designation of Deputy Administrator San Diego as OIC, effective August 24, until such time that an Administrator is appointed by the President.

"After discussion and deliberation, the Board of Administrators agreed to designate and assign Deputy Administrator for Corporate Resources and Financial Services, Ms. Sonia San Diego as Officer-in-Charge of National Electrification Administration effective August 24, 2021 until such time that an Administrator is duly appointed by the Office of the President," the Board resolution read.

The Special Board Resolution was signed by NEA Board of Administrators Chairman, Energy Secretary Alfonso Cusi, and Board Members Agustin Maddatu, Alipio Cirilo Badelles and Rene Gonzales. ###
